

Doug Gurr confirmed as the new Chair of the CMA

27.2.2026 - | Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs

Doug Gurr is now the permanent chair of the CMA following an open competition for the role.

Doug Gurr has today [Friday 27 February 2026] been confirmed as the new chair of the Competition and Markets Authority (CMA).

He will lead the CMA for a five year term, continuing the work he undertook as interim chair, to boost growth and business confidence while ensuring consumers remain protected - all delivered in partnership with CMA Chief Executive Sarah Cardell,

<https://www.gov.uk/government/news/doug-gurr-confirmed-as-the-new-chair-of-the-cma>