

Change of His Majesty's Ambassador to Azerbaijan: Duncan Norman

2.3.2026 - | Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs

Mr Duncan Norman MBE has been appointed His Majesty's Ambassador to the Republic of Azerbaijan in succession to Mr Fergus Auld OBE.

Mr Duncan Norman MBE has been appointed His Majesty's Ambassador to the Republic of Azerbaijan in succession to Mr Fergus Auld OBE. Mr Norman will take up his appointment during May 2026.

Curriculum Vitae

Full name: Duncan Charles Norman

Year	Role
2023 to 2024	National Security Secretariat, Deputy Director, Joint Funds Unit
2022 to 2023	FCDO, Deputy Director Ukraine Recovery Conference Unit
2021 to 2022	Home Office, Deputy Director, International Criminality Directorate
2016 to 2021	Tirana, Her Majesty's Ambassador
2015 to 2016	Pre-posting training (including Albanian language training)
2013 to 2015	FCO, Head of Afghanistan Unit
2010 to 2013	FCO, Head of HR Services Unit
2007 to 2010	Dhaka, Deputy Head of Mission
2006 to 2007	Dhaka, First Secretary Political
2004 to 2006	Tortola, British Virgin Islands, Head of the Governor's Office
2000 to 2003	FCO, Middle East Department
1998 to 2000	Yerevan, Deputy Head of Mission
1994 to 1997	Riyadh, Vice Consul
1993 to 1994	FCO, Research Dept
1990 to 1993	FCO, Finance Dept and Joint Assistance Unit
1990	Joined FCO

<https://www.gov.uk/government/news/change-of-his-majestys-ambassador-to-azerbaijan-duncan-norman>