

Vacancy for a Deputy Chief Inspector of Marine Accidents

24.3.2026 - | Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs

We are seeking a Deputy Chief Inspector of Marine Accidents to join our Southampton-based office.

Are you looking for a role where you can improve safety at sea and make a difference to lives? Can you lead and give direction to a team with your knowledge and experience in the marine industry? Do you have an altruistic sense? If so, we would love to hear from you!

Your responsibilities will include:

- providing direction for the timely conduct of high-quality marine accident investigations
- ensuring the highest standards of governance and commercial management as required for investigations and ongoing operational activities
- validating causal analysis conducted during investigations, overseeing the formulation of well-founded recommendations and quality assuring investigations and investigation reports
- developing and maintaining strong relationships with a wide range of industry stakeholders
- deputising, as necessary, for the Chief Inspector of Marine Accidents

For further information about this position and how to apply see Civil Service Jobs, Deputy Chief Inspector of Marine Accidents, Ref: 452730

The deadline for applications is 11:55pm on Tuesday 7 April 2026.
