

HM Land Registry Chair's response to the Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State

31.3.2026 - | Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs

This is the Chair's response to the Government's expectations and priorities for HM Land Registry over the coming year.

Baroness Taylor of Stevenage, Parliamentary Under-Secretary of State at the Ministry of Housing, Communities and Local Government, has written to the Chair of the HM Land Registry Board, Neil Sachdev, to set out her priorities for HM Land Registry in delivering their role in registering and protecting land and property ownership and supporting an efficient property market.

A Chair's letter is issued annually to ensure there is a clear set of expectations of HM Land Registry's leadership. This letter includes a number of key areas of focus for HM Land Registry to support the government's policy priorities, missions and Plan for Change.
