

Military court centres court listings

8.4.2026 - | Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs

Court listings for the military court centres.

In line with the government's transparency and open data initiative, the Military Court Service is to publish the court listings for the military court centres.

Each court listing covers the next one or two week assize period. This will be published on the internet by the last working day in advance of the assize period.

In addition to this, the court listings are published using digital signage technology within the reception areas of both military court centres.

Court Listings using Digital Signage

Please be aware that the court listings are subject to change after publication, if you wish to find out more please contact the relevant military court centre. Details can be found at the bottom of each court listing.

Related information

- Military Court Service
- Court martial results from the military court centres

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/military-court-centres-court-listings>