

CMA appoints new Non-Executive Directors

17.4.2026 - | Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs

CMA welcomes newly appointed non-executive directors to the board.

The Competition and Markets Authority (CMA) is pleased to announce the appointment by the Secretary of State for Business and Trade of four new members to the CMA Board. Katie Kapernaros, David Halpern, Michael Mire and Sir Suma Chakrabarti will join the CMA Board as Non-Executive Directors.

Doug Gurr, Chair of the CMA, said:

I am delighted to welcome our new Non-Executive Directors to our Board, who will bring welcome perspectives to the CMA from a range of expertise and professional backgrounds.

This comes at a time when our role, and the ability for the CMA to have a positive impact on UK consumers, businesses and economy, is more critical than ever. They will help us deliver economic growth and improve household prosperity, as well as make a positive contribution to promoting competition and protecting consumers.

Non-Executive Directors are appointed to the CMA Board by the Secretary of State for Business and Trade for a period of five years.
