

Planning Inspectorate publishes March official statistics

23.4.2026 - | Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs

The Planning Inspectorate has published the March 2026 official statistics.

We have today published our latest official statistics on appeals performance which represents the greatest volume (in terms of number of cases) of the work of the Planning Inspectorate.

The quarterly statistics also include our current appeals handling times to let customers know the average time it takes to receive a decision.
