

CMA response to the Chancellor on pricing pressures and competition

14.3.2026 - | Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs

A letter to the Chancellor setting out the CMA's action to monitor pricing pressures, protect consumers and ensure competition is working effectively.

Sarah Cardell, CMA Chief Executive, responds to the Chancellor of the Exchequer, setting out the CMA's action to monitor pricing pressures, protect consumers and ensure competition is working effectively in heating oil, road fuel and other key markets.

- Read the letter sent to the CMA by the Chancellor of the Exchequer

<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/cma-response-to-the-chancellor-on-pricing-pressure-and-competition>