

Change of British High Commissioner to Tonga: Keith McMahon

25.3.2026 - | Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs

Mr Keith McMahon MBE has been appointed British High Commissioner to the Kingdom of Tonga in succession to Mr Philip Malone LVO, who will be transferring to another Diplomatic Service appointment.

Mr Keith McMahon MBE has been appointed British High Commissioner to the Kingdom of Tonga in succession to Mr Philip Malone LVO, who will be transferring to another Diplomatic Service appointment. Mr McMahon will take up his appointment during June 2026.

Curriculum Vitae

Full name: Keith David McMahon

Year	Role
2022 to present	Accra, Deputy High Commissioner
2022	Tashkent, First Secretary Political
2019 to 2021	Khartoum, Deputy Ambassador
2016 to 2019	FCO, Deputy Director Financer
2014 to 2016	Washington, Chevron Corporation, Head of Corporate Affairs (on special unpaid leave from FCO)
2008 to 2014	Washington, First Secretary, Corporate Services
2007 to 2008	FCO, Finance Directorate, Corporate Transformation
2003 to 2007	Athens, First Secretary, Corporate Services
1999 to 2003	FCO, Desk Officer, Democratic Republic of Congo, Rwanda and Burundi
1998 to 1999	FCO, Desk Officer, China
1998	Paris, Third Secretary Consular
1995 to 1998	Yerevan, Deputy Ambassador
1992 to 1995	FCO, Worldwide Floater
1990 to 1992	Lusaka, Third Secretary Management
1988 to 1990	FCO, Finance Department
1988	Joined FCO

<https://www.gov.uk/government/news/change-of-british-high-commissioner-to-tonga-keith-mcmahon>