

Change of His Majesty’s Ambassador to Iceland: Jane Stevens

30.3.2026 - | Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs

Mrs Jane Stevens has been appointed His Majesty’s Ambassador to the Republic of Iceland in succession to Dr Bryony Mathew.

Mrs Jane Stevens has been appointed His Majesty’s Ambassador to the Republic of Iceland in succession to Dr Bryony Mathew. Mrs Stevens will take up her appointment during September 2026.

Curriculum vitae

Full name: Jane Elizabeth Stevens

Year	Role
2025 to present	Full time language training (Icelandic)
2024 to 2025	FCDO, temporary assignments in MENAD, EECAD and Analysis Directorate
2022 to 2023	FCDO, Deputy Director, Ukraine Campaign Unit
2018 to 2022	FCDO, Europe Directorate (Deputy Head EU Exit, then Europe Strategy)
2013 to 2018	FCO, Team Leader then Deputy Head, Projects Task Force
2010 to 2013	FCO, Olympics Directorate (London 2012)
2004 to 2010	Maternity/special unpaid leave
2003 to 2004	FCO, Press Officer to the Permanent Under Secretary, then Chief Press Officer
2001 to 2003	FCO, Communication Directorate (Islamic Media)
1998 to 2001	FCO, Middle East and North Africa Directorate (Iraq)

<https://www.gov.uk/government/news/change-of-his-majestys-ambassador-to-iceland-jane-stevens>