

Statistics on International Development: provisional UK Official Development Assistance spend 2025

9.4.2026 - | Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs

This publication includes high-level statistics on provisional UK Official Development Assistance (ODA) spend and the ODA:GNI ratio for 2025.

The UK provides Official Development Assistance (ODA) to developing countries or through international organisations.

This publication presents provisional spending statistics on UK ODA for the calendar year 2025, and UK ODA as a proportion of gross national income (the ODA:GNI ratio).

The information presents ODA spending by main delivery channel (bilateral or multilateral delivery), by government departments and other official sources. It also provides Foreign, Commonwealth & Development Office (FCDO) bilateral ODA spend by region.
