

Judicial Pension Board appointment of an independent member

19.3.2026 - | Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs

The Lord Chancellor has approved the appointment, by the Chair of the Judicial Pension Board (JPB), of Tim Mpofu as an independent member for 3 years from 9 March 2026.

The JPB was established under the Judicial Pension Regulations 2015 (the 'regulations'). The JPB assists the Lord Chancellor to manage and govern the Judicial Pension Schemes by ensuring compliance with the regulations and other requirements.

Under the regulations, Independent Members of the JPB are appointed by the Chair with the approval of the Lord Chancellor.

The appointment of JPB Independent Members is regulated by the Commissioner for Public Appointments and recruitment processes align with the Governance Code on Public Appointments.

Biography

Since January 2025, Mr Mpofu has been Head of Partner Fund Solutions at London CIV (Collective Investment Vehicle). He oversees the management of London Local Government Pension Scheme assets. Prior to joining London CIV, he served as Head of Pensions and Treasury at Haringey Council from 2021 to 2024.
